Robert Hannah has been a CPGA member for 20 years and a full time teaching professional for the past eight years. He believes that knowledge, preparation, and the proper individual analysis of a student's game are the keys to sound instruction. He continues to learn about the numerous factors that contribute to a golfer's improvement and in the process has become a Titleist Performance Institute Certified Golf Fitness Instructor. Robert is currently a Teaching Professional at Rebel Creek Golf Club.

Connie Deckert

Connie has been involved in golf for many years as a player and for the last two years as an instructor. She has played locally as well as at the provincial and national levels and the LPGA Tour. In 2005, Connie obtained her Level 111 Teaching Certificate from the Canadian Golf Teachers' Federation. Connie is also a Leadership Waterloo Region graduate. Her company, FORE U Enterprises, is a member of the Greater Kitchener-Waterloo Chamber of Commerce. Connie is the Varsity Golf Coach at the University of Guelph looking after the Men & Women's Golf Teams.

Todd Cowan

Todd has been teaching golf in Waterloo for 10 years, Teaching many Junior golfers in the RCGA future links program and various high school and grade school golf programs. He was also a caddie on the PGA senior tour. He has been playing the game since he was six years of age. Todd grew up in a family of competitive golfers, being the son of Canadian Golf hall of fame member Gary Cowan. He became a member of the CGTF in 2004.
